The play concerns the crisis facing Dogpatch, USA, when the town is selected as an A-bomb test site. Lil Abner, Daisy Mae, Mammy and Pappy Yokum and other Dogpatchers band together to save their beloved town. All ends well, with Lil Abner winning Daisy Mae from the evil clutches of Earthquake McGoon.

CHARLEY'S AUNT

"I'm Charley's Aunt from Brazil, where the nuts come from!" This was a familiar line from the JHS fall play. The comedy portrayed two young men about to declare their love for two fine young ladies to Charley's wealthy aunt. When they heard, however, that Charley's aunt would be late for the "meeting" they dressed a friend to pose as Charley's aunt. The fast movement of the play held the audience's attention from beginning to end.

During school year 76-77 Jefferson hosted one foreign exchange student, Buket Ozturk, from Cyprus. Buket, sponsored by the A.F.S. program, stayed with the Ralph Tillit family. She was active in volleyball, basketball, and track. She enjoys skating, skiing, and snowmobiling, even though she really doesn't care for the extremely cold weather. Buket likes the United States and hopes to continue her education in this country. One of the highlights of her stay was a trip out west during the Christmas vacation.

Jefferson was represented by Sue Flint in Africa and Tim Mateer in Spain. Sue spent two summer months in Berekum, Africa. She was the only white in an all-black village and lived with the chief and his three alternating wives. Sue feels it was a fun learning experience.

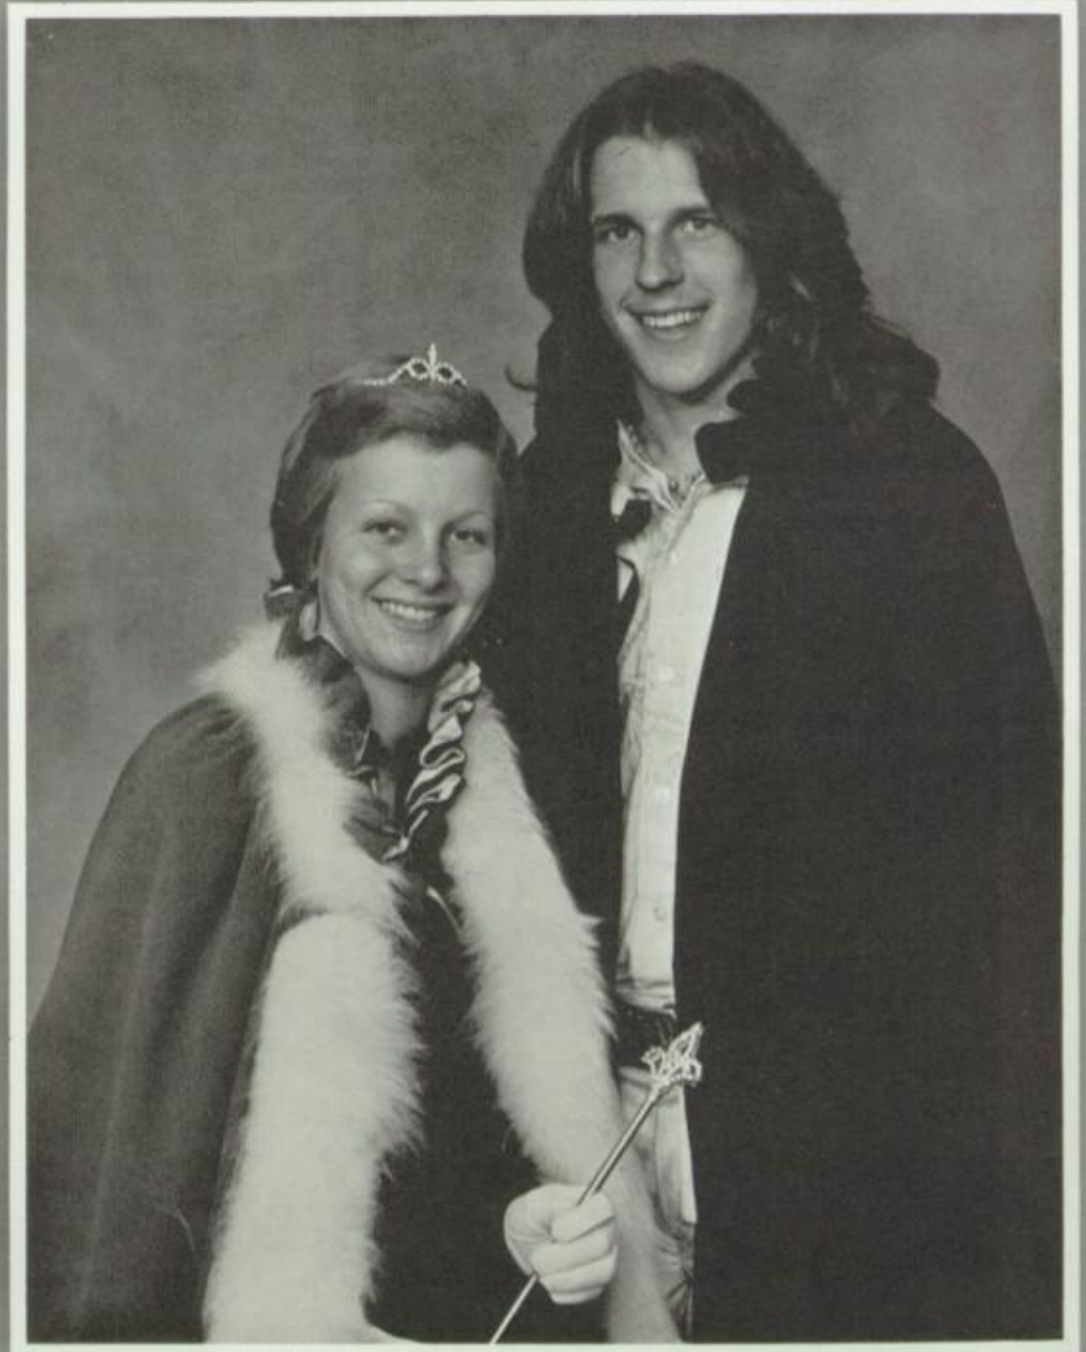

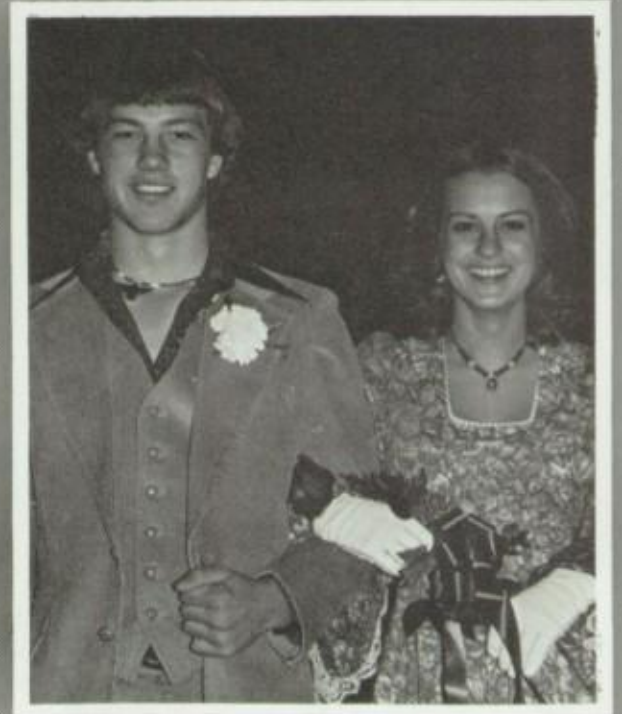

Tim Mateer stayed in Madrid, Spain this summer for two months. Among other things, he spent a week in an anti-communist camp and hitchhiked halfway across Spain. He especially liked the food and beverages. He felt it was a great educational experience, and also a fantastic way to spend a vacation.

Homecoming was another festive occasion this year. The events started off Thursday afternoon with the senior float winning first place in competition. Thursday evening coronation was held with Jane Marboe being crowned Queen, and Keith Godfrey chosen as King. Following coronation the parade and pep fest were held. On Friday night the football team tangled with the team from St. Cloud Cathedral and though the Cards fought bravely, the end result was in favor of the visiting team. On Saturday night a tea was held for alumni and parents.

JHS HOST'S MASC CONVENTION

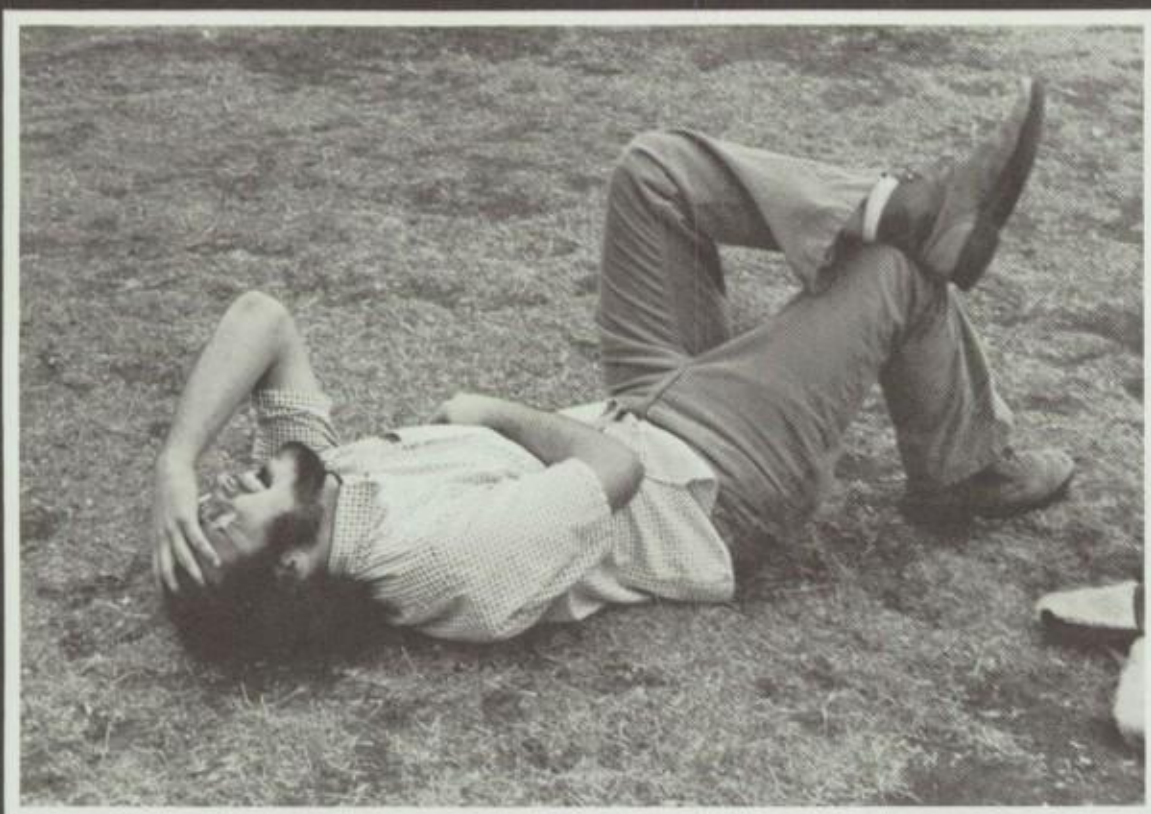

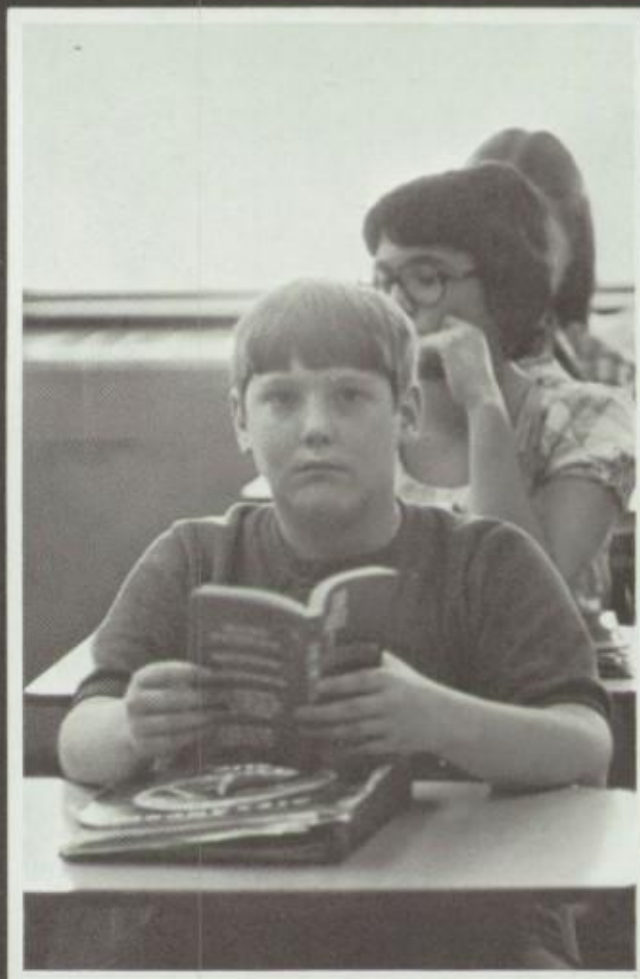

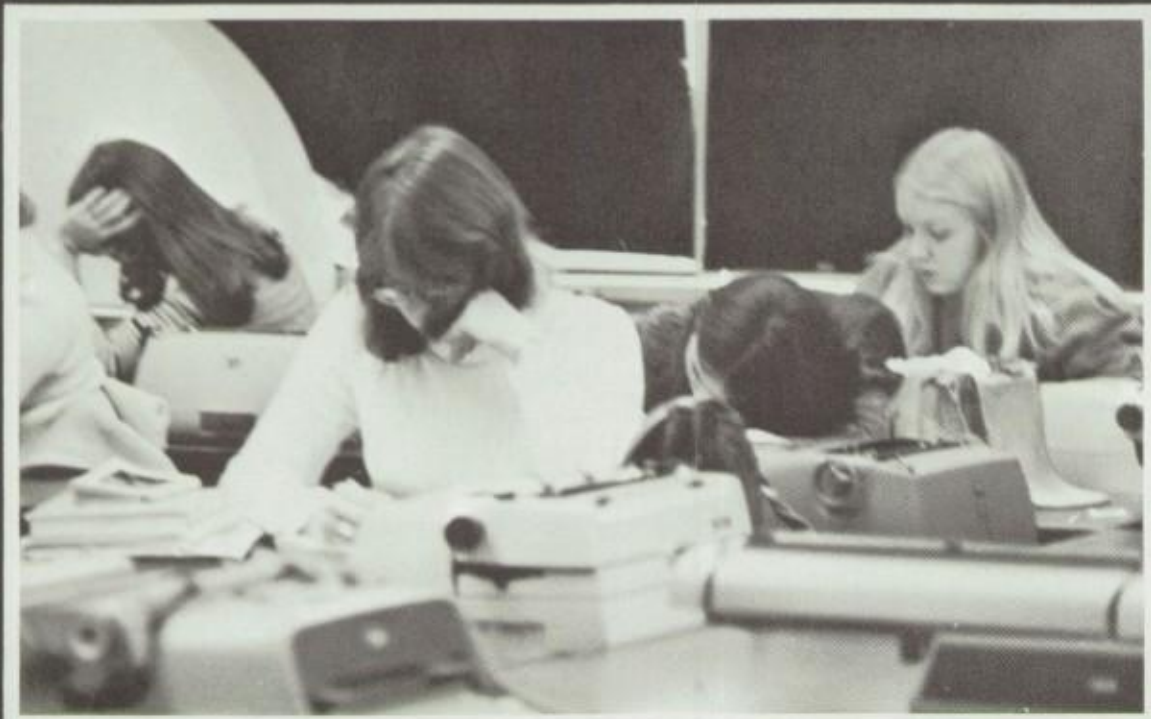

The Minnesota Association of Student Councils Convention was held November 4-6, 1976. The Jefferson High School student council and advisor Mr. Howell, planned for the convention for more than a year. During the convention many Jefferson students helped with arrangements and Alexandria families hosted 350 students from all parts of the state.

The MASC convention provided an excellent opportunity for Minnesota student leaders to meet each other and transfer what they learned to their own schools. Main events at the Arrowood convention were a banquet, dance, and election of MASC officers.

Sundogs began as a literary magazine at Jefferson Senior High School in 1974. Thanks to support from students, faculty, and administration, Sundogs grew from mimeographed booklets to a professionally printed magazine of writing, prints, sketches, and photographs. With the 1975-76 issues it reached beyond the high school and became an area magazine, open to contributors of all ages.

Being on the Alexian staff gives you a first hand experience of producing a yearbook. At the end of the school year, all the hard work pays off when the final result is ready, the Yearbook.

In sports we gain freedom through the discipline of using our bodies and minds. Pacing yourself over Crestwood's cross country course or mastering a new wrestling hold, helps you grow physically as your personality matures with acceptance of a victory or loss. When the game is over and down in the records, we realize the satisfaction of working together is what really has become the most important factor of the game.

Seventeen Alexandria Cardinalettes practiced at least two hours a week advised by Mrs. Ortloff. This group of girls do pom drills at all home games and also halftime performances for many of the home games. The 1976-77 officers were: President T. Olsen; Vice-President, A. Rilling; Secretary and Treasurer, M.A. Meyers
